United Way of Southwestern Indiana To Announce Winner of 2017 Jeep Cherokee

Evansville – United Way of Southwestern Indiana will announce the winner of its 2017 Jeep Cherokee Giveaway at the final drawing taking place today at 4:00 PM at the Dream Car Museum, 2400 N. Heidelberg Ave. All media is invited to attend.

The 2017 Jeep Cherokee was donated to the United Way's Annual Campaign by Audubon Chrysler Center, Bennett Motors and the Dream Car Museum. To be eligible, past donors who increased their pledges by $50 or more over their previous year's pledges, and new donors who pledged $50 or more received one entry into the drawing. Past donors who increased their pledges by $100 or more over their previous year's pledges, and new donors who pledged $100 or more received two entries into the drawing. The deadline to enter the Jeep Cherokee Giveaway was December 31, 2017.

Three finalists were randomly drawn on January 18, 2018 at the United Way office:

Susan Diaz, St. Vincent Evansville
Mary Lou Norman, Deaconess
Leah Simon, EVSC

Each of the three finalists will select a key at the final drawing event, and one will start the Jeep Cherokee.

"We are extremely grateful to Larry Bennett, Audubon Chrysler Center, Bennett Motors and the Dream Car Museum for the donation of the Jeep Cherokee to our annual campaign," said Amy Canterbury, President & CEO of United Way of Southwestern Indiana. "This partnership presents an opportunity that we otherwise could not provide, and demonstrates the commitment that Mr. Bennett has to our community and the individuals we serve."
