COVID-19 Youth Worker Relief Fund Guidelines

Purpose

IYI's Youth Worker COVID-19 Relief Fund provides direct support to youth workers that have been negatively impacted by COVID-19.

Eligibility Requirements

- You must be 18 years or older,
- You must have lost income based on COVID-19, either through a reduction in hours or a furlough/layoff,
- You must currently be, or have recently been, an employee of an Indiana based tax-exempt youth serving organization or school, and
- All grants funds will be electronically deposited. You must be able to receive an electronic bank transfer of funds.

Evaluation Criteria

- Grants are limited to one per individual,
- Only complete applications can be considered, and
- Grants are nontransferable and can be used by applicant only.

Award Requirements

- Grants are non-transferable and can be used by the applicant only.
- Grant funds may only be issued to eligible youth-serving professionals and educators via electronic deposit to personal U.S. bank account. Only applicants with approved grant applications will be asked to provide account routing numbers.

Deadlines

- Applications will be accepted April 22 – 27, 2020.

Application Instructions

- Complete application and submit, via email to IYIyouthworkerfund@iyi.org.
- Incomplete applications will not be considered. Please review the application checklist before submitting your application.

Questions?

Please be patient as we expect a high volume of requests. Due to the anticipated volume we will not be able to response to all submissions. If your grant application is approved for payment, you will be notified within one week of your application submission. If you have additional questions, please refer to our FAQ document, here.
